

Members from the Priory church fellowship have recently met together on two separate occasions to seek Gods guidance and will for the future work of the church. We felt that we would like to share what we believe God showed us with the wider community.

Traditions and human agendas are not always Gods agenda. We must be prepared to put aside our own agendas and follow Gods agenda. God may lead us into places we do not want to go. He may take us out of our comfort zone but we need to remember that nothing is impossible for Him. As we follow Gods will He will give us the ability that is needed.

We may feel limited in what we can achieve but we must remember that there are no limits to what God can do.

As we move forward, following Gods agenda, we need to work together in Gods love, only then can we show His love to others. There should be no division between us so that God can move freely among us.

It is important to remember that the only words that were spoken in Edna's prophesy were, that if we follow Gods will JESUS WILL DO THE REST.

Our daily walk with Christ must be walked in unity, purity, love, harmony, carefully and in victory. To do this we need to come to God constantly to be refreshed and refilled with the Holy Spirit.

The church needs to be a family church. Children should not be looked on as the church of the future but as part of the church today. Both adults and children should be encouraged to use their own skills as part of our weekly worship.

Bible teaching and worship should not be restricted to Sunday morning services but can take place on any day of the week.

In the community around the church there are many people who are suffering, financially, emotionally and physically. The church needs to become a refuge for the community, a place where they can find compassion, comfort and hope for the future.

As a church we feel that we need to be part of the community around us. Showing Gods love to everyone we meet, not just with words but by our actions as well. Been part of the community we need to welcome everyone into the church and help them to feel at home and comfortable. When possible we will work alongside the community, encouraging people to play their part in church activities.

We feel the need to pray that God will renew our passion to tell others about Him. To pray that He will give us the enthusiasm of a new Christian, wanting to tell everyone we see what our God has done for us and can do for them.

Our main aim is to show people we meet that God loves them and our prayer remains the same – that everyone we meet will come to know Jesus as their own friend and saviour and that they will know the peace, hope and love that knowing Jesus brings.
