IN THE GARDEN

September can be a very busy time for gardeners. There is so much to do to get the garden ready for the winter months. People are harvesting the last of their summer fruit and vegetables before the colder weather arrives, and cutting down or protecting summer flowering plants.

My mum used to love gardening and my dad still gardens with a passion in the summer months. This could explain my love for gardening. Cultivating beautiful flowers that grace our garden with beauty is an enjoyable past time for both Pete and me. If it weren't for the weeds it would be wonderful!

When I have to wrestle with the weeds, I am reminded of the Garden of Eden. It was a perfect garden until Adam and Eve disobeyed God, making thorns and thistles a reality for them and every gardener since then [Genesis 3:17-18].

The bible also mentions another garden – the garden of Gethsemane where Christ, in deep distress, pleaded with His Father to find another way to reverse sin's consequences that was born in Eden. It was in Gethsemane that Jesus surrendered to His Father by uttering words of full obedience in the face of great pain: "Your will be done" [Matthew 26:42].

Because Jesus surrendered in that garden, we now harvest the benefits of His amazing grace. May this lead us to surrender to His weeding of sin from our lives.

Spiritual growth occurs when faith is cultivated.
